The YWCA of Greater Baton Rouge is dedicated to eliminating racism; empowering women; and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. To accomplish this, we strive toward being a premier service movement and building a community where women are respected leaders in all sectors of society, diversity is embraced and all people belong to one race - the human race. Specifically, the YWCA provides direct service through three programs:

- Early Head Start
- SIHLE
- Racial and Social Justice

Through our dedicated and tireless efforts, the YWCA hopes to change the odds for East Baton Rouge Parish families, supporting opportunities for otherwise vulnerable people to live with dignity and decency.
